LONGSHOREMEN'S UNION

The Longshoremen's Union met yesterday for the purpose of discussing various matters in connection with the bylaws of the organization. The most important matter brought up at the meeting was the proposition of Asiatic labor as employed by certain parties doing business along the waterfront. At the meeting, the members of the union were made to understand thoroughly that they must expect to pay a fine of $25 if they are ever caught working along wharves with either Chinese or Japanese.

Indeed this is already well understood by the members of the union and they are beginning to show fight.
A certain stevedore firm that has been wont to employ both Asiatics and natives has found recently that none of the Hawaiians will do a stroke of work for them.

It was also decided at the meeting to make the initiation fee $10 instead of $25, as was decided on in the beginning. It was further decided that in case there should be need of money to carry on work of the union the executive committee shall have the power to place a pro rata on each of the members of the union.

At the present time there are over four hundred members of the Long-shoremen's Union. Besides these, there are in the neighborhood of three hundred more eligible workers on the wharves, a great many of whom have already signified their intention to join the Union as soon as the opportunity should offer.

BOERS ARE CLAIMING DEFEAT OF BRITISH

London, April 4.—The Boer Junta in London says it has received news of a recent action in South Africa, in the course of which the burghers captured a loaded British convoy and 600 men, releasing the soldiers, according to custom, after having relieved them of their rifles, cartridge belts, ammunition and superfluous clothing. The War Office denies knowledge of such engagement and the Boers assert the information of the capture has been deliberately suppressed either by Lord Kitchener or his subordinate commanders.

The story of the alleged incident has reached the attention and a question will be addressed to the Government on the subject immediately after the reassembling of Parliament. One of the Boer delegates said:

"Six hundred British troops, commanded by a colonel, were advancing through a broken country in charge of a baggage train, when 400 Boers appeared directly ahead of the convoy at some distance and opened fire. The British commander sent 400 men forward to disperse the enemy. Thereupon a strong party of burghers attacked the small convoy guard, surrounding and disarming it. The British advance detachment tried to return to their comrades, but the Boers closed about on all sides of the detachment, which surrendered after slight resistance. The surprise effected by the burghers was complete. The casualties on both sides were few."

There was severe fighting all day long March 31 in the neighborhood of Harts River in the southwestern extremity of the Transvaal between part of General Kitchener's force and the forces of General Delarey and Kemp, resulting in the repulse of the Boers after heavy losses on both sides. The Canadian forces especially distinguished themselves, one party, commanded by Lieut. Bruce Carruthers, holding its post until every man was killed or wounded.

Lord Kitchener's official report, dated from Pretoria, yesterday evening, says: General Kitchener (Lord Kitchener's brother) sent Colonel Keir and Cooks on from Vreikuil, Western Transvaal, March 31, to reconnoiter toward Harts River. They soon struck the track of the guns and carried on a running fight for eight miles, following the track through the bush. Emerging on a plain, large Boer reinforcements advanced against their flanks, forcing the British troops to take up a defensive position, which they hastily entrenched.
Fighting ensued at close quarters until the Boers were repulsed on all sides. Delarey, Kemp and other leaders vainly attempted to persuade their men to renew the action.

Fifteen hundred Boers participated in the engagement, but they had suffered too heavily and cleared away to the northwest and south. The British losses also were severe. The Canadian Rifles especially distinguished themselves, one party, commanded by Lieutenant Bruce Carruthers, holding its post until every man was killed or wounded. Others of the forces showed great steadiness, allowing the Boers to advance within 200 yards of them and repelling them with a steady rifle fire.

DORIC FROM THE ORIENT

The Occidental & Oriental steamship Doric, Captain H. Smith, arrived from Oriental ports this morning, docking at the channel wharf about 9 o'clock.
She sailed from Hongkong on March 25, Shanghai on the 28th, Nagasaki on the 31st, Kobe on the 2d inst., and Yokohama on the 5th, making the run from the latter port in 9 days, 7 hours and 25 minutes, her second best record in the last thirty voyages.

The Doric brings 600 tons of freight for this port, a few cabin passengers and 395 Japanese in the steerage. She enjoyed a very pleasant trip. Her tough passenger list appears elsewhere. She sails from San Francisco at 6 o'clock this evening.

The Doric sighted a two-masted steamer ashore to the south of Mikototo light-house, near Rock Island, about 65 miles to the westward of Yokohama, just before reaching Yokohama from Kobe. Captain Smith says he could not make out what the vessel was.

The Japan Daily Mail of Saturday, April 5, the day the Doric sailed from Yokohama, has the following to say concerning the stranded steamer:
"News arrived in Yokohama on Thursday that a steamer was ashore near Shimoda. The O. & O. steamer Doric, which arrived here from Kobe on Thursday afternoon, and the N. Y.
K. steamer Kobe Maru, which arrived from Kobe on Friday, reported having sighted a two-masted steamer ashore to the south of Mikoto light-house.
In the neighborhood of the place generally known as Rock Island. Enquiries at various quarters failed to verify the name of the stranded steamer.
There is strong reason, however, to suppose that the ship is the Taiyo Maru, 743 tons register, owned by Take-saki Kusuuma. She arrived at Yokohama from Newchwang towards the end of last month, and after discharging her cargo left here for Moji on the 2d inst. at 6 p. m. It seems probable that she stranded during the night. When sighted by the Kobe Maru only the funnel and masts were visible, the other parts of the steamer being under water."
